

Wroxton Village Fete; Saturday 7th August 2021 12 noon-4pm

Information and request for donations to stalls

Below are the stalls /activities confirmed so far which need your help!

Tea's at The Old Farmhouse. Please deliver cakes to Patricia Molyneux's garage between 9am-11am on fete day.

Made in Wroxton. Any home-made cakes, pie's, jam's, chutney's etc., please deliver to Val Woodward at Sundial Farmhouse or Judy May at The Old Forge anytime during week before the Fete or by 11am on Fete Day.

Bric-a-Brac. Any unwanted items, in good condition and clean please, no longer required that someone else might like. Please deliver to Claire Evans at the stall between 9am-11am on Fete Day

Collectables. Objet d'art such as nice glassware, porcelain or silver items. Please deliver to Sarah at Rose Cottage prior to, or to Delia Pinfold at the Stall by 11am on Fete Day.

Bottle Stall. Bottles will be collected by David and Kate Marsh on Wednesday 4th and Thursday 5th August. If you won't be at home but have bottles to donate, please either contact David and Kate on 738415 to arrange collection, or leave them outside Abbey Farm Cottage on Church Street.

Books, CD's and DVD's Stall. Great opportunity to clear out your bookshelves, CD's and DVD's. Please deliver to Chris Cherry at Orchard Banks during week (evenings only) leading up to the Fete or Chris and Debs Howe at the stall by 11am on the morning of Fete Day.

Pimms and Prosecco. Neil and Susan Byrne McLelland would be hugely grateful for any donations of Pimms, Prosecco, Lemonade (in bottles) etc. ahead of fete day. Please deliver to Blenheim Cottage on Mills Lane during the week prior to, or to the stall by 11am, on Fete Day.

Plant and Produce Stall. Any plants, shrubs or home grown vegetables or fruit, please bring to the Village Green for Maureen Wollacott between 9am-11am. If you can spare courgettes, tomatoes, beans, raspberries and anything else home grown, please can you have them prepared in bags or reused plastic trays from supermarkets.

FUN DOG SHOW on the Village Green starting at 1pm. Entry fee of £1 per dog per class. Organised by Arthur Spencer-Bolland of Wroxton Grange. Full details can be found on Village Website, www.wroxton.org.uk and village notice boards.

To end what will be a busy but fun day, residents from Wroxton are welcome to join the BBQ on the village green from 6pm. Please bring your own food to put on the BBQ along with your drinks.